

Pasos. Journal of Tourism and Cultural Heritage is an internet publication dedicated to the academic and management-based analysis of the diverse processes inscribed within the tourist system, with a particular emphasis on the uses of culture, the environment and territory, people, communities and spaces, integral heritage. It encourages articles from inter and trans-disciplinary perspectives, from both scientific and management points of view. Its objective is to provide a forum for the discussion of methodologies and theories as well as the presentation of case studies and the results of empirical research. It hopes to contribute to ongoing debates surrounding attempts to comprehend the phenomenon of tourism and to develop diverse approaches to the prevention of the undesirable consequences of tourism as well as enhance the quality of life of the residents of tourist destinations.

Frequency: January; April; October

STYLE: In order to simplify the process of editing and publication contributors are requested to comply with the following editorial guidelines:

Submission of original manuscripts: papers should be sent to the following the instructions in http://pasosonline.org/?page_id=171

Language: Articles will be published in the language in which they are submitted.

Margins: 3 centimetres on all sides.

Font: Times New Roman or Arial, in 10-point or similar. The same font should be used in the footnotes, but in 9-point. There should be no variation in fonts or text size throughout the text. Highlighted paragraphs or words should be indicated in italics.

Notes: These should always be placed at the end of the article and written in the same font as the main body (Times New Roman or Arial) in 9-point.

Title and author note(s): The title of the article should be written in lower case and highlighted in bold, at the top of the first page. This should be accompanied by the author(s) full name(s) and title(s), indicating clearly their institutional affiliation, specialism and email address. If it is desired, further biographic details may be inserted in a separate note, not exceeding 60 words.

Abstract: An abstract must be included (max. 110-120 words) in the same language as the main article. This should be accompanied by a translation in English, or, Spanish, if the language of the article is English.

Key words: A list of 5 – 7 key words should be provided, which relate to the principal themes in the article.

Text: Articles should be typed, 1.5 spaces apart, exceeding no more than 9,000 words, including the title, biographic information, abstract, introduction, relevant appendices, conclusion, acknowledgements (if relevant) and bibliography.

Tables, Diagrams and Figures: These can be included in the article where necessary. They should be referenced in the main text and/or situated where convenient and accompanied by an explanatory sub-heading. Colour graphics can be used.

Abbreviations and Acronyms: These should be spelt out in full and clearly defined where they initially appear in the text.

References and Bibliography: The standard Harvard system should be used, indicating the author and date of publication of the relevant work. For example: (Smith, 2001) or (Nash, 1990; Smith 2001). Where it is necessary to include a more precise citation the page number should be included (Smith, 2001: 34). The bibliography should be in alphabetical order at the end of the article, and written in the following format:

Smith, Valene L. and Brent, Mary-Ann
2001 "Introduction to hosts and guests revisited: Tourism issues of the 21st century". In Smith, Valene L. & Brent, Mary-Ann (Eds.), Hosts and guests revisited: Tourism issues in the 21st century (pp. 1-14). New York: Cognizant Communications.
